

When the sea is rolling across, meeting the sandbanks and its reefs, the coral is getting dislodged and fishes are sucking it off.
Is there a place to find cover so waves don't arrive and attack?
The age of a rope is different from the newness of all its threads.

All the miracles of the world are just known by its creator.
Don't separate all the pieces, you're gathering nothing but dirt.
I should not look at someone else when I have strife in my own house.
The age of a rope is different from the newness of all its threads.

I pulled but it did not fall out, made a cut for digging further.
This thorn will not be coming out, I have exhausted my deceptions.
But I will not rest till I succeed, despite gossiping and slander.
The age of a rope is different from the newness of all its threads.

I was making an evening call to visit my beautiful wife.
It was early in the evening, the night was beginning to fall.
An animal in the entrance kept me from passing the doorway.
The age of a rope is different from the newness of all its threads.
